

TEACHING ENDORSEMENT IN COMPUTER SCIENCE (CSTed)

College of Education
UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS URBANA-CHAMPAIGN

PART OF THE UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS SYSTEM

Offered by the University of Illinois Urbana Champaign with implementation support from Discovery Partners Institute, the CSTed curriculum is designed with educators in mind and specifically focused on the teaching and learning of CS.

The Teaching Endorsement in Computer Science is a five-semester, cohort-based model that meets the Illinois State Board of Education's requirement for obtaining a subsequent endorsement in computer science.

- The CSTed is open to Illinois teachers with a current and valid Professional Educator License in Grades 5-12.
- This pathway includes one evening class per semester and two summer classes.
- All courses take place online and are delivered synchronously, with ongoing support from UIUC faculty and DPI staff.
- Tuition support may be available

The next cohort
